1867: Laura Ingalls is born near Pepin, Wisconsin.
1869: The Ingalls family moves to the Osage Diminished Reserve near Independence, Kansas (Kansas Territory).
1871: The family returns to "The Big Woods" in Pepin.
1874: The Ingalls family settles just outside Walnut Grove, Minnesota.
1876: The Ingalls move to Burr Oak, Iowa, for just one year.
1877: The family returns to Walnut Grove.
1879: The Ingalls family builds a homestead in De Smet, South Dakota (Dakota Territory).
1881-1889: Mary Ingalls attends Vinton College for the Blind in Iowa.
1894: Laura, her husband Almanzo, and daughter Rose settle in Mansfield, Missouri, and establish Rocky Ridge Farm.