Harmony of the Heartland: Indiana's Music History

Anderson: Home of Grammy Award-winning Gospel singer Sandi Patty

Elkhart: The nation's first wind instrument manufacturing firm was established here in 1879.

Fort Wayne: Legendary artists, Louis Armstrong, Doris Day, and Duke Ellington all performed at the Embassy Theatre.

Goodland: Birthplace of Eddie Condon, jazz banjoist/guitarist and bandleader

Fort Wayne: Birthplace of Kyle Cook, lead guitarist for Matchbox 20

Peru: Birthplace of legendary composer/songwriter Cole Porter

Wabash: Home of Crystal Gayle, Grammy Award-winning country music singer

Lafayette: Hometown of Axl Rose and Izzy Stradlin of Guns N' Roses and Shannon Hoon of Blind Melon

South Bend: Notre Dame boasts the oldest college marching band in continuous existence (since 1846)

Bean Blossom: The Bill Monroe Bluegrass Festival is the oldest continuously running bluegrass festival in the world.

Indianapolis: Hometown of American Idol Adam Lambert, vocalist/producer Kenneth "Babyface" Edmonds, jazz trombonist/composer J.J. Johnson, and Albert Von Tilzer, who wrote "Take Me Out to the Ball Game."

Bloomington: Birthplace of composer/pianist/singer Hoagy Carmichael and Grammy Award-winning violinist Joshua Bell

Tempe: The nation's first wind instrument manufacturing firm was established here in 1879.

Dale: Birthplace of singer/actress Florence Henderson

Gary: Hometown of the Jackson Five, Michael and Janet Jackson. The band performed one of their first shows at Gary Roosevelt High School.

Alexandria: Birthplace of Bill Gaither of the Grammy Award-winning Gaither Vocal Band

Muncie: Hometown of the band, The Why Store and jazz trumpeter Paul Smoker

Richmond: Gennett Records became the "Birthplace of Recorded Jazz" in 1917.

Seymour: Birthplace of Grammy Award-winning singer/songwriter John Mellencamp

Fort Wayne: Legendary artists, Louis Armstrong, Doris Day, and Duke Ellington all performed at the Embassy Theatre.

Terre Haute: Hometown of Paul Dresser, singer/songwriter who wrote the Indiana state song, "On the Banks of the Wabash." Birthplace of singer/musician "Scatman" Crothers and Militia of lead guitarist Mick Mars.

Chicago: Hometown of the Jackson Five, Michael and Janet Jackson. The band performed one of their first shows at Gary Roosevelt High School.

Indianapolis: Frank Sinatra first sang at the Lyric Theater in Indianapolis. The Beatles performed at the Indiana State Fair in 1964, only the tenth stop on their first American tour. And Elvis Presley performed his last concert at Indianapolis' Market Square Arena in 1977.

Indianapolis: Frank Sinatra first sang at the Lyric Theater in Indianapolis. The Beatles performed at the Indiana State Fair in 1964, only the tenth stop on their first American tour. And Elvis Presley performed his last concert at Indianapolis' Market Square Arena in 1977.

Elkhart: The nation's first wind instrument manufacturing firm was established here in 1879.