Eye of the Beholder: Countries with Miss Universe Pageant Winners
1952-2013

Miss Universe began in 1952 and was won by a contestant from Finland.

International beauty contests promote and export a white, Western standard of beauty. Globalization is accelerating the adoption of these standards around the world. As new governments seek global economic integration, they often signal this by jumping on the Western beauty bandwagon. The proliferation of beauty contests in the former Soviet bloc countries is particularly striking.

The pageant had only 26 contestants in 1953 but 89 contestants in 2011 and 2012. The youngest Miss Universe winner was 17, and the oldest was 20.
UNIVERSITY ISSUES THOUSANDS OF CITATIONS

From Jan. 1, 2013, to April 1, 2014, the university issued a total of 28,185 parking tickets. This map shows how many tickets were issued in spots throughout campus during this time period. Violation fees for parking range from $20 to $135. A hold appears on a student’s Bursar account until they pay the ticket. Vehicles that have five or more unpaid parking tickets will be booted or towed from campus. It costs $30 to remove the vehicle’s boot.

America

for everyone

The U.S. is both a male and female sport, 97% is played by youth soccer. Girls had equal opportunity laws opened new horizons for them at the college level. In 1991, the U.S. first Women's World Cup, and repeated in 2021. A strong showing in World Cup 2022, the Games, is on the rise, although on any given day, Mexico or Costa Rica—can humble its neighbor. Soccer is the great equalizer.

Europe

Lure of the rich and famous

Birthplace of the modern game, England helped popularize soccer worldwide; in 1986, and in its home soil, it won its single World Cup. Today most global soccer revenue comes from Europe, home to the world's richest professional clubs. Hosted by Germany, the 2006 World Cup will bring together the best national teams in the world who survived a rigorous, two-year qualifying to qualify.

Asia

A growing passion

Over the last two decades, a heated soccer rivalry—among Japan, China, and South Korea—has stirred soccer passions across the continent. Not all countries share the fervor, however. India and Pakistan prefer other sports, especially cricket. Meanwhile, oil-rich Persian Gulf states such as Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, and Qatar are investing huge sums of money in their programs, hiring the best coaches and players money can buy.
The Great American Menu
Australia was first settled by Aboriginal peoples from the north between 50,000 and 70,000 years ago. It is the largest landmass in the Pacific Ocean. New Zealand is about 995 mi. (1,600km) to the southeast. Thousands of smaller islands are dotted through the Pacific, including Fiji, Tonga, and the Solomon Islands.
