HEAD COACH: Bob Thomas (Eastern Illinois ’74), 33rd season
GRADUATE ASSISTANT DIVING COACH: Lisa Maertin (Ball State ’10), first season
VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH: Adam Konopka
HED COACH BOB THOMAS

The winningest coach in the 70-year history of Ball State men's swimming & diving, Bob Thomas enters his 33rd season as the program's head coach. From the 2004-05 season through the 2008-09 season, he was also the co-head coach of the women's swimming & diving team.

A four-time Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year (1992-93, 1994-95, 1999-00 & 2002-03), Thomas has accumulated a 213-170-2 (.556) career record, including a 94-104-1 (.475) league ledger. He has guided the Ball State men's squad to a pair of runner-up finishes at the MAC Championships (1992-93 & 2002-03), while guiding the team to a top three finish eight times.

Over his career, Thomas has coached his student-athletes to MAC Individual championships a total of 40 times, while helping guide his relay teams to seven titles. His student-athletes have earned First Team All-MAC honors eight times, while collecting Second Team All-MAC accolades on 17 occasions.

He has also coached his athletes to four All-America honors, eight MAC Diver of the Year awards, four MAC Outstanding Senior awards and a MAC Swimmer of the Year title.

The Cardinals' latest MAC Individual champion came in 2005-06 when MAC Outstanding Senior award winner Kurtis Leer swept the freestyle sprint events, winning the 50, 100 and 200 titles. Leer, who is BSU's record holder in both the 100 and 200 freestyle, finished his career as a six-time MAC champion, also winning all three events his junior year.

On the women's side, Thomas helped guide Sarah Welter to the 100 backstroke title at the 2004-05 MAC Championships. Welter also swam the first leg of the 200 Medley Relay which captured the event title the same year with a school-record clocking of 1:45.04. Joining Welter in the relay were Tara Zimmer, Erin Johnson and Karla Bailey.

In 2002-03, Thomas picked up his fourth MAC Swimming Coach of the Year award by leading Ball State to an 11-3 dual-meet record and a second-place finish at the MAC Championships despite having just two seniors on the roster. The Cardinals had finished sixth at the league event the year before, giving Thomas the best turnaround in the MAC for the 2002-03 season.

Thomas collected his third MAC Swimming Coach of the Year award after the 1999-2000 campaign, as the Cardinals turned in another solid improvement from the previous season, climbing from eighth to fifth at the league meet. The team also posted a 7-5 dual-meet record, while going 5-2 in conference action.

From the 1995-96 to 1997-98 seasons, Thomas helped coach the program's latest MAC Diving Champion, as Dave Garrow collected three individual titles on the 1-meter board and a pair of championships on the 3-meter board. A two-time MAC Diver of the Year, Garrow ranks second in the BSU record books in all diving categories.

A two-time Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year (1989-90 & 2003-04), Laura Seibold-Caudill embarks on her 33rd and final season as head coach of the women’s swimming & diving team at Ball State. From the 2004-05 season through the 2008-09 season, she was also the co-head coach of the men’s swimming & diving team.

In her 32 previous seasons, Seibold-Caudill boasts a combined record of 270-176-3 (.605), including an 87-112-1 (.438) Mid-American Conference mark, with both programs. She has guided the Ball State women’s squad to third-place finishes at the league championship meet four times, while helping the men’s program to a top three finish in her first season as co-head coach of the program in 2004-05.

Over her career, Seibold-Caudill has coached her student-athletes to MAC individual championships a total of 34 times, while helping guide her relay teams to four titles. Her student-athletes have earned First Team All-MAC honors 28 times, while collecting Second Team All-MAC accolades on 17 occasions.

She has also coached her athletes to two All-America honors, four MAC Diver of Year awards, three MAC Outstanding Senior awards and two MAC Swimmer of the Year honors. In addition, she has coached two individual NCAA National Championships qualifiers, two U.S. Olympic Swimming Team Trials participants and five International Olympic Team Trial participants.

The Cardinals’ latest MAC individual champion came in 2005-06 when the MAC Outstanding Senior award winner Kurtis Leer swept the freestyle sprint events, winning the 50, 100 and 200 titles. Leer, who is BSU’s record holder in both the 100 and 200 freestyle, finished his career as a six-time MAC champion, also winning all three events his junior year (2004-05).

On the women’s side, Seibold-Caudill helped guide Sarah Welter to the 100 backstroke title at the 2004-05 MAC Championships. Welter also swam the first leg of the 200 Medley Relay squad which captured the event title the same year with a school-record clocking of 1:45.04. Joining Welter in the relay were Tara Zimmer, Erin Johnson and Karla Bailey.

Seibold-Caudill captured the 2003-04 MAC Swimming Coach of the Year award after guiding her squad to an 11-5 dual meet record and a fourth-place finish at the MAC Championships.

A former collegiate diver, Seibold-Caudill helped Beth Clarke capture diving titles on both the 1-meter and 3-meter boards during the 1997-98 season, which earned Clarke MAC Diver of the Year accolades. Clarke picked up the award again in 2000-01 after capturing the MAC title for a second time on the 1-meter board. Clarke also tallied three NCAA National Championship appearances in 1998, 2000 and 2001.

BALL STATE'S FIRST FEMALE NATIONAL CHAMPION
Patricia Bergman (1969-72) was a three-time national champion for the Cardinals.
The first female national champion in any sport in the history of Ball State athletics and one of only a small number in school history, Bergman set national records in the 100-yard backstroke and 100-yard individual medley.

She helped Ball State to a ninth-place finish at the 1971 National Intercollegiate Swimming and Diving Championships as the Cardinals placed ahead of Syracuse, Indiana, UCLA, Miami (Fla.), Utah, Northwestern, Oklahoma, Washington State and several other schools.

At the 1971 meet, Bergman won the national title in the 100 IM (1:03.3), just behind her national championship clocking of 1:03.0 set in 1970.

She won the national title in 1970 in the 100 back (1:02.3) and finished second in 1971 (1:03.0). At the 1971 national meet, Bergman also placed fourth in the 50 back (29.6), plus helped BSU to a seventh-place finish in the 200 medley relay.

Jo Ann Gora began serving as Ball State’s 14th president in August 2004. Under her leadership, the university has made immersive learning the hallmark of every Ball State student’s college experience. From 2007-2010, nearly 8,200 students completed more than 500 immersive learning projects throughout Indiana and beyond.

Gora has led the development and implementation of the university’s Education Redefined strategic plan, which was the basis of the university’s capital campaign, Ball State Bold. It concluded in June 2011 and topped its $200 million goal by more than $10 million.

Since Gora’s arrival, Ball State has been in the midst of an unprecedented era of campus improvement. For the eight-year period ending in 2012, the university is spending approximately $418 million on major construction and renovation projects. Gora was one of 12 charter signatories to the American College and University Presidents Climate Commitment in 2006. She has led Ball State’s sustainability efforts, including its geothermal energy project, the largest of its kind in the country. This fall, the university completes Phase One of the project, shutting down two coal-fired boilers and saving more than $1 million annually in operational efficiencies. In 2009, Gora earned the Mira Trailblazer Award from TechPoint for her significant and lasting contributions to technology innovation in Indiana. She is a member of the American Council on Education’s Board of Directors and the Association of Governing Boards’ Council of Presidents. She chairs the Mid-American Conference Presidents’ Council and co-chairs the Central Indiana Corporate Partnership. She serves on the boards of the Indiana Chamber of Commerce, First Merchants Bank, and Ball Memorial Hospital.
Among our more than 152,000 living alumni are renowned entertainers, top corporate executives, leading educators, and members of the Indiana General Assembly.
