RICH MALONEY
HEAD COACH
CAREER RECORD: 597-388
BALL STATE RECORD (7 YEARS): 256-144-1

Rich Maloney, who posted a 256-144-1 (.640) record as the head baseball coach at Ball State from 1996-2002, returns as the program’s head coach for the 2013 season.

“We are extremely excited to welcome Rich Maloney back to the Ball State family and the Muncie community,” Ball State athletic director Bill Scholl says. “He was an integral part of continuing the outstanding tradition of Ball State baseball in his previous tenure with the Cardinals, and we are looking forward to his return. Coach Maloney has built an outstanding resume as a collegiate head coach and his proven track record was a key factor in his hiring at Ball State.”

Prior to returning to Ball State, Maloney served as the head baseball coach at Michigan for 10 seasons, guiding the Wolverines to a 341-224 (.604) overall record. He led Michigan to three Big Ten Conference titles, two Big Ten Tournament titles and the 2007 NCAA Regional title. He was also named the 2007 and 2008 Big Ten and ABCA Midwest Regional Coach of the Year.

Maloney also guided the Wolverines to Big Ten Tournament berths in seven of his 10 seasons, including a streak of six straight from 2003-08. His teams also made four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances (2005, 2006, 2007, 2008).

Prior to being named the head coach at Michigan, Maloney amassed a 256-144-1 (.640) overall record in seven years as Ball State’s head coach, including a 141-60 (.704) ledger in Mid-American Conference games. Maloney guided the Cardinals to four MAC West Division titles (1998, 1999, 2000, 2001) and two MAC Regular Season titles (1998, 1999).

Maloney also led the Ball State baseball program to the only two 40-win seasons in program history -- 42 in 1999 and 40 in 1997 -- and was named the 1998 and 2001 MAC Coach of the Year.

Over his 17-year collegiate coaching career, Maloney has mentored 51 different players who have been drafted a total of 57 times. He has coached five first round draft picks, with all five playing at Ball State.

In 2002, he helped Bryan Bullington become the only No. 1 overall draft pick in both Ball State and MAC history in any sport when he was selected by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Later the same day, Luke Hagerty was chosen with the 32nd overall pick by the Chicago Cubs in the supplemental first round, giving Maloney two first round draft picks in the same season.

A third-team All-American as a senior shortstop at Western Michigan, Maloney earned a bachelor’s degree in 1986. A three-year letterwinner at WMU (1984-
86) and a two-time captain, Maloney was a two-time All-MAC first-team selection and was twice named to the all-district squad. He was Western’s team MVP while hitting .362 as a junior in 1985, and was twice named the top defensive player on the team (1984, ’86). In 1986, he set the WMU career record for runs scored (124). Maloney was inducted into WMU’s Athletic Hall of Fame in November 2004.

Maloney was a 13th-round draft pick of the Atlanta Braves in 1986 following his career at WMU. He spent six seasons in the Atlanta Braves organization, earning all-star status in the Appalachian League for the Pulaski Braves and in the South Atlantic League for the Sumter Braves. While in the Braves system, he played for former Los Angeles Dodgers and Boston Red Sox manager Grady Little. Maloney retired from pro baseball following the 1991 season at Greenville (AA).

Following his professional baseball career, Maloney served as an assistant coach for legendary Fred Decker at Western Michigan from 1992-95 before accepting the head coaching position at Ball State in May 1995.

Maloney is married to the former Kelle Lynn Seitz. They have two sons, Alexander and Nicholas, and a daughter, Natalie.

Jo Ann Gora began serving as Ball State's 14th president in August 2004. Under her leadership, the university has made immersive learning the hallmark of every Ball State student's college experience. From 2007-2010, nearly 8,200 students completed more than 500 immersive learning projects throughout Indiana and beyond.

Gora has led the development and implementation of the university's Education Redefined strategic plan, which was the basis of the university's capital campaign, Ball State Bold. It concluded in June 2011 and topped its $200 million goal by more than $10 million.

Since Gora's arrival, Ball State has been in the midst of an unprecedented era of campus improvement. For the eight-year period ending in 2012, the university is spending approximately $418 million on major construction and renovation projects. Gora was one of 12 charter signatories to the American College and University Presidents Climate Commitment in 2006. She has led Ball State's sustainability efforts, including its geothermal energy project, the largest of its kind in the country. This fall, the university completes Phase One of the project, shutting down two coal-fired boilers and saving more than $1 million annually in operational efficiencies.

In 2009, Gora earned the Mira Trailblazer Award from TechPoint for her significant and lasting contributions to technology innovation in Indiana. She is a member of the American Council on Education's Board of Directors and the Association of Governing Boards' Council of Presidents. She chairs the Mid-American Conference Presidents' Council and co-chairs the Central Indiana Corporate Partnership. She serves on the boards of the Indiana Chamber of Commerce, First Merchants Bank, and Ball Memorial Hospital.
