Abstract

What makes up a culture? “Culture” is a complex term that has many aspects to it, making it difficult to define. I go deeper into the concept of culture as I explore various aspects of Greek culture and how they differ from American culture. By filming a documentary called, Cultural Differences of Greeks and Americans, I have broken the differences into four categories: lifestyle, arts, economy, and food.

Honors College
Ball State University
Muncie, IN 47306