

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Alpha Pi Chapter

History

May 25, 1970

On September 23, 1944, the local sorority, Phi Delta Lambda, joined forces with the national sorority, Delat Sigma Epsilon, and became the Alpha Pi Chapter of that group. This was the second group on Ball State campus to join forces with a nation sorority.

Their colors are olive green and cream. The installation dues are $7.00, "The Shield," the sorority magazine is $5.00 per year, national dues are $2.50, and Local dues $3.00 per term.
