This animated short film titled 'Piggy Precious' is about the relationships between a nerdy man, his pet pig and his and jealous girlfriend. Due to the girlfriend's overwhelming jealousy and belief that her boyfriend cares more about his pet pig than her, she snaps. The film focuses on the ways she tries to prepare the pig for dinner, so she can have her boyfriend to herself. This leads to dire, unknowing consequences for the pig; but in the end, it's the girlfriend's jealousy and horrible actions that lead to her own defeat and doom. This stop motion film short was produced using the production pipeline which consists of preproduction, production and postproduction. Many influences came to mind while creating Piggy Precious, such as Christiane Cegavske, Yuri Norstein and Karel Zeman.
