

A Student's Guide to Traveling and Studying Abroad in Mexico

An Honors Thesis (HONRS 499)

by

Colleen Kiss

Thesis Advisor
Dr. Marina Guntsche

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Marina Guntsche". The signature is written in a cursive style and is underlined.

Ball State University
Muncie, Indiana

April 2004

Expected Date of Graduation: May 2004

LD
2489
.Z4
2004
.K58

Abstract

Many students leave for study abroad experiences not knowing what to expect or what direction to take in their studies and travels while abroad. I was one of these students. Based on my own personal experience in Mexico, I wish to lend a helping hand to those who will follow in my footsteps by also studying abroad. This book is a how-to guide to traveling and studying abroad in Mexico. Most travel guides include only travel information and some tips or suggestions. This book has more of a cultural basis. It covers a wide variety of topics from tips and suggestions to specific cultural information on cities and towns in Mexico. I hope that this book will serve as a stepping off point in students' travels to Mexico.

Acknowledgements

- I would like to thank Doctor Marina Guntsche for helping me through the process of this project. Her I am very grateful for all of her guidance, insight, and support.
- I would like to thank Dr. Edmonds for her help in brainstorming for this project. Her ideas were a key factor in me choosing this topic.
- I would like to thank David Tarvin for allowing me to use some of his photographs throughout the book.
- I would like to thank all of my professors and program directors from Morelia, Mexico. They were the main contributors in much of the cultural information in this book.