I would like to thank all of the children for their brilliant and evocative work.

I would like to thank all other students and friends who participated.

Special thanks to Yung-ho.

Special thanks and love to Julie and Brittany.

- I wanted to study the house.
- I wanted architecture.
- I do not know what architecture is, and if I did there would be nothing for me to discover.
- I do know what a house is.
- This is where we live.
- I asked the children a question.
- I asked teenagers and adults the same question.
- What is the most favorite place in your house and why?
- I asked them to draw this place.
- I used this for inspiration and not interpretation.
- The children's drawings and writings had the most influence on me.

- This is what they wrote.
