Did you know?

Have any of you had trouble with the Student Health Center? It was brought to our attention that there had been some issues. Did you know that you should be able to bypass all the mess by simply showing them your Military ID and DD214? This should count as proof of your immunizations.

Tailgate and Career Fair

This Saturday, September 7, the SVO will be having a tailgate at the BSU vs. Army Game. This will take place at the West Tailgate Lot off of Tillotson and Bethel, at the army trailer, from 10:00-12:30 There will be hot dogs, hamburgers, chips, drinks, and games! SVO will have mini foam footballs with their logo and also the Tek Services logo. This event will be open to family, friends, and anyone else who would like to come.

RSVP's can be sent to the Veteran Affairs email (osfavetga@bsu.edu). While Tek services is here, they are having a career fair. This will take place the following Monday, September 9, from 2:00-5:00pm in the Forum Room in the Student Center. There will be a powerpoint, resume reviews, and mock interviews. There will also be free food and prizes! Please bring your own resume. Professional dress is not required. This event is open to spouses. There will also be another career fair September 18 in Worthen Area. It will be from 12:00-4:00pm. Around 100 employers participate in this event, along with 600 students and alumni. Both of these career fair opportunities will be a great way to network and get a feel for companies! The SVO and Office of Veteran Affairs encourage you to attend.

Get Involved

The fall is a great time to get involved on campus! SVO and Salute are both military organizations. SVO is open to all student veterans, and dependents. Salute, open only to veterans, is an organization for those who have above a 3.0 GPA.

Among these organizations, there are also many others. Don't see something that interests you?

You can make your own! The link to Ball State's webpage about organizations is listed here (<http://cms.bsu.edu/CampusLife/StudentLife/StudentOrgs.aspx>). Information about all Ball State organizations can be found here.

Greek life is also a great way to get involved. Recruitment is September 12-15. Dance Marathon is having a call out meeting for dancers on September 25, location and time TBA.

Many are nervous to reach out, but many claim it was one of the best things they did. There are clubs for your major and your hobbies. Don't forget, if nothing looks interesting you can make your own! Ball State is the perfect place to find somewhere that you fit in. Get involved this semester!
