Biographical Note:

Joseph Orland Cezar (1903–1991) practiced architecture from his home in Indianapolis from 1930 to 1979, designing homes, churches, and commercial structures. Among his designs are centerpiece houses for the Indianapolis Home Shows of 1953 and 1962.

Cezar was born in Austria, in an area that later became part of Yugoslavia. His father was a stonecutter. The family moved to Chicago in 1905, then to Bedford, Indiana in 1912. Joseph attended Hanover College for two years, and then transferred to Georgia Tech for one year, from 1928-29. He received a Bachelor's Degree in Architecture (with honors) from Chicago Technical College in 1931. He then worked primarily as a high school teacher, teaching applied mathematics, stone drafting, and stone shop work until 1938 when he moved to Indianapolis. Cezar worked for other firms until beginning his own practice in 1944.

Scope and Contents:
